ILLUSTRATED BOOK TELLS OF NEW YORK

Amusement Resorts, Hunting and Fishing Places Are Described.

"A Summer Paradise" is the title of a small book which presents many interesting facts in regard to northeastern New York State. So thoroughly does the little volume set forth the historical facts associated with various localities in the State, and the beauties of even the most remote hunting, fishing, and other amusement resorts, that it will be read with surprise even by native New Yorkers themselves.

The book, which contains 200 illustrations, and maps, lists of summer excursions, circular tours, hotels and hotel rates, is invaluable as a guide book to the resorts of the northeastern section of the State, and is issued by the Delaware and Hudson Company. It is a compact and accurate gazetteer to the cities, towns, and resorts, reached by this railway system.

SHUBERT ARRANGES BIG REALTY DEAL

Purchases Half of a Broadway Block for $6,000,000.

NEW YORK, June 4.—Lee Shubert, the theatrical manager and producer, has announced the purchase of the eastern half of the block bounded by Broadway, Seventh avenue, Thirty-fifth and Thirty-sixth streets. This property was reported sold earlier in the week but the report was denied.

The price involved is said to be $6,000,000, and the purchasers are a syndicate of which Lee Shubert is the head. The property is covered by a number of buildings, most of them small and of old design.

SUBURBAN CITIZENS CHOOSE OFFICERS

Action of Congress Regarding Playgrounds Subject of Criticism.

Charles C. Lancaster today entered upon another term as president of the Citizens Northwest Suburban Association. Other officers elected at a meeting last night were Col. James L. Tait, first vice president; Dr. John Chappell, second vice president; Isaac C. Shoemaker, third vice president; A. M. Ray, fourth vice president; G. R. Payne, secretary, and S. M. Hawkins, treasurer.

Criticism was made by Mr. Lancaster of the action of Congress in compelling the District to shoulder the entire appropriation for playgrounds.

GALLERY WILL MOVE "DIANA OF THE TIDES"

Elliott's Great Picture to Be Hung in a Permanent Position.

The "Diana of the Tides," the great decorative painting by John Elliott at the National Gallery, which has attracted much attention, will be moved from its present position in the room at the end of the main corridor, to a permanent place.

The dimensions of the painting are eleven by twenty feet, and the beauty and originality of the work have attracted attention in the art worlds of both Europe and America.

Mr. Elliott, the artist who painted the picture, is in Washington to supervise its transfer from one part of the gallery to another.

HONORS IN DEBATE WON BY D. B. CREECY

In the annual oratorical contest last night of the Georgetown University Law School, Donald B. Creecy, of Maryland, was declared the best debater.

With Joseph E. Ebbetts, of Tennessee, he opposed H. C. Todd, of Washington, and K. V. Hite, of Alabama, who argued that the Federal Constitution should be amended so as to give the United States the power to levy an income tax.

Justice Thomas H. Anderson, Lawrence O. Murray, and Oscar Lawler were the judges. The winning team will receive a purse of $100 in gold.

$2 to Luray, Va., and Return June 5 Baltimore & Ohio, from Union Station, Washington 8:15 a. m., returning leave Luray 8:00 p. m. same day.—Adv.

How Does This Compare
With Your Idea of a Home?

Six useable rooms. Each home twenty feet wide. Large front and rear porches. A selection of any one of four different architectural front designs. Big dry concrete cellars. Furnace heat. Iron girder floor supports. Parquet flooring on main floor. Bay window dining room, affording ample light, as well as plenty of room for furniture. Kitchen equipped with gas range, china closets, pantry and direct entrance to cellar; also direct entrance to front door.

Three well planned bed rooms, with ample closet space. Handsome mantels and the best of gas fixtures. A completely tiled bath room, equipped with the very best of modern fixtures.

Decorations to suit occupant.

Entire home finished in hard wood also hard wood stairway.

A good size rear yard and ample front lawn.

In conclusion: A home finished in every detail according to the most modern ideas of building. To accomplish this and still keep down to such a moderate figure is only possible under present day conditions, where building is carried on in such a great volume as here.

Now let's add a few other facts which place these homes out of the ordinary.

They Are Situated In a Growing Section of Columbia Heights.

A neighborhood with good schools, two car lines; within a few squares of Soldiers' Home—a great play-ground for children, as well as grown-ups, and an invaluable asset to this property.

There are 80 of them sold—to people who saw the value and realized the wastefulness of paying rent when such terms were offered on such a home as this.

$300 Cash. Balance $29.50 Monthly

Before They Are All Sold You Can Well Afford to See Them. Sample Home, 3223 Georgia Avenue, N. W.

To inspect: Take 9th street cars to corner of Lamont street or 11th street cars to corner of Lamont street and walk two squares East to the properties. Don't put off an inspection.
